

Congressman Ryan Comments on Senate Denial of Unemployment Extension

(Washington, DC) – Today, Congressman Tim Ryan (OH-17) made the following comment on the Senate vote against the Tax Extension, Unemployment Extension for the third time:

“To have this bill turned down three separate times is outrageous. It is becoming quite apparent that Republicans in the Senate want our economy to fail,” stated Congressman Ryan.

"Although the economy is moving in the right direction, thousands of people are still unemployed. Republicans are forcing more hardship onto the American people. The party of family values is now the party of hypocrisy. The Republicans have said 'no' to everything; if we took the word 'no' out of the dictionary, Republicans would be speechless.”
